Further Certificate of Approval of Undertaking.

WHEREAS the Corporation of the City of Revelstoke is the holder of a certificate approving its undertaking in respect of the diversion and use of 110,000 gallons a day of water from Bridge Creek and 350,000 gallons a day of water from Hamilton Creek for waterworks purpose, and has applied to the Comptroller of Water Rights for a licence to divert and use 1 cubic foot of water per second from Greely Creek, a tributary of Illecillewaet River, for waterworks purpose:

And whereas the said Corporation has petitioned for the approval of its undertaking in respect of the diversion and use of the said 1 cubic foot of water per second, and has complied with the requirements of the "Water Act" relative to its petition:

And whereas it appears in the public interest that the prayer of the said Corporation's petition be granted:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the Corporation of the City of Revelstoke relative to the diversion and use of 1 cubic foot of water per second from Greely Creek for waterworks purpose, as the said undertaking is outlined in the petition filed with the Comptroller of Water Rights on November 24th, 1930, is hereby approved, subject to the provisions of the "Water Act" and to the following terms and conditions:—

The construction of the works necessary to divert and use the aforesaid quantity of water shall be carried out to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Water Rights.

The territory within which the Corporation may exercise its powers so far as the same relate to the undertaking hereby approved consists of the area comprised within the corporate limits of the City of Revelstoke and the land lying within a radius of 10 miles from the north-west corner of Section 26, Township 23, Range 2, west of the 6th meridian.

This certificate does not authorize the diversion of any water or the construction of any works, nor is it an approval of the plans of any works.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 7th day of January, 1931.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in smallpica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{1}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 12197.

NOTICE is hereby given that "British Columbia Equipment Company, Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 15th day of January, 1931.

The authorized capital of the Company is five hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand five hundred preferred shares and three thousand five hundred common shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 551 Howe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To carry on the business of wholesale and retail dealers in machinery, hardware, builders', shippers', and loggers' supplies, sand, gravel, lime, cement, lumber, timber, bricks, iron, steel, automobiles, motor-trucks, gasoline, steam-engines, boilers, engineers' supplies, and to act as importers and exporters of the same or any of them:

(2.) To purchase, take over, or otherwise acquire as a going concern or otherwise the whole or any part of any business and assets having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to pay therefor such consideration, either in cash, shares, or debentures in the Company, as the Company may decide:

(3.) To act as factors and agents for any person, persons, or corporation dealing in the materials and products above mentioned or any of them:

(4.) To maintain and operate wharves, warehouses, scows, tug-boats, freighters, dredges, and any plant, machinery, or craft of a similar nature to the same, or which may be conveniently used in conjunction with or in connection with the same, or in conjunction with or in connection with any business carried on by the Company, and to purchase or in any way acquire and hold any and all the said wharves, warehouses, scows, tug-boats, freighters, dredges, plant, machinery, and craft:

(5.) To purchase or acquire in any way whatsoever real estate or any interest therein or arising therefrom, and to sell, lease, exchange, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(6.) To buy, sell, manufacture, let or hire, export and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purpose of any of the businesses hereinbefore mentioned, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in such business, or which may be capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(7.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the consideration or purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(8.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, patents, licences, brevets d'invention, concessions, contracts, agencies, or any other rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(9.) To lend money on any terms that may be thought fit, and particularly to customers or other persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the contracts or engagements of any such persons:

(10.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, whether promoted by this Company for the purpose or not, and to improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(11.) To act as contractors for the erection or construction of buildings, plant, machinery, wharves, ships, railways, lumber-mills, and generally buildings of any nature whatsoever, and to sell and install mining machinery of any kind whatsoever, and do all things necessary or incidental to such sale or installation, and to erect and construct dams, electric or hydraulic power plants, gas plants, or anything whatsoever required in undertakings of a similar nature:

(12.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise:

(13.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or any other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for the same either in cash or in shares of this Company credited as partly or fully paid up, or in both cash and shares, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stock, or debentures in any association or company:

(n.) To manufacture, buy, sell, prepare, let on hire, and deal in motor-cars, motor-cycles, engines, radios, aerial conveyances of all kinds, and all kinds of machinery and apparatus for use in connection therewith:

(o.) To acquire, provide, and maintain hangars, garages, sheds, and aerodromes:

(p.) To acquire agencies for the sale of all articles or property dealt with in the ordinary course of business:

(q.) To carry on the trade or business of wholesale warehousemen, removers, storers, packers, and carriers of personal property of every description:

(r.) To issue warrants to persons warehousing goods with the Company, and to lend money upon the security of such goods:

(s.) To act as commission or consignment or general agents and to carry on a general agency business:

(t.) To acquire, own, operate, and turn to account trucks, automobiles, wagons, carts, and vehicles of all kinds, and to carry on business as carters and carriers, warehousemen, and as forwarding and delivery agents:

(u.) To carry on business as storekeepers, farmers, carriers, provision-preservers, and, subject to the "Engineering Act," as mechanical engineers, builders, and contractors:

(v.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, and deal in real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, licences, shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, securities, concessions, options, produce, policies, book debts and claims, and any interest in real and personal property, and any claims against such property or against any person or company, and to carry on any business concern or undertaking so acquired:

(w.) To subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell, dispose of, and deal in, shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, and securities of any company or of any authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), or of any persons whomsoever, whether incorporated or not:

(x.) To insure with any other company or person against losses, damages, risks, and liabilities of all kinds which may affect this Company:

(y.) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(z.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertakings or any part or all of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(aa.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(bb.) Generally to do all or any things necessary for the carrying-out of the above-mentioned objects or conducive to realization thereof or to the welfare of the Company.

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, concessions, and the like, or any secret or other information for the purposes of the Company; the acquisition of such may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(g.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein-stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(h.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company:

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any such purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(j.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To construct and improve, maintain, develop, work, and manage manufactories, warehouses, shops, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interest, and to contribute to the better carrying-out of the maintenance, management, and control thereof:

(l.) To buy, sell, manipulate, and deal with, both wholesale and retail, commodities, articles, or things of all kinds which can conveniently be dealt with by the Company in connection with any of its objects:

(m.) To conduct and carry on business as general merchants and a general mercantile and commission business; to carry on business as general contractors for the carrying-out, construction, instalment, and completion of works, erections, and contracts of all kinds:

(n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(o.) To borrow money on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(p.) To lend, deposit, or advance money, securities, or property to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual:

(q.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(r.) To distribute any property of the Company among its members in specie:

(s.) To allot shares in the Company as fully paid up in payment or part payment for services, goods, or property rendered to the Company:

(t.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by manufacturers, merchants, agents, or financiers; to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing of profits, sharing of interest, or co-operation of any person or persons, company or companies carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transactions capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; to lend money to the shareholders of the Company or any one or more of them with or without security:

(t.) To remunerate the officers and employees of the Company or others out of or in proportion to the profits of the Company or otherwise as the directors of the Company may think fit:

(u.) To make, accept, draw, endorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments:

(v.) To raise or borrow or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by mortgage, bonds, or debentures or other security charged upon all or any of the Company's property or rights, both present and future, including uncalled capital; to draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, issue, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(w.) To guarantee the performance of any contract by any person, partnership, or corporation having dealings with the Company, and to pledge the assets of the Company as security for the performance of such contract:

(x.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to this Company:

(y.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents or patent rights, improvements and processes under registration, trade-marks, trade-names and designs in any way connected with the business of the Company or useful thereto, and to sell or turn to account any such patents, patent rights, trade-marks, trade-names and designs:

(z.) To distribute amongst the members in specie any part of the property or assets of the Company:

(aa.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(bb.) To apply for, accept, take, hold, sell, dispose of, and deal with shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations, or other securities of any other company, person, or firm:

(cc.) To pay all or any of the expenses of or incidental to the formation or organization of the Company, and to employ, contract with, and provide for the remuneration of brokers, commission agents, and underwriters upon any issue of shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company:

(dd.) Any power granted in any paragraph hereof shall not be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph:

(ee.) To do any or all of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with other companies, corporations, persons, or partnerships, and either by or through agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise:

(ff.) To do anything which the Company may consider incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(17.) To manufacture, buy, sell, export, import, and generally deal in ropes, cables, windlasses, tackle, and ship-building supplies generally:

(18.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(19.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(20.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make grants of land to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, religious, general, or useful objects:

(21.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(22.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(23.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(24.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(25.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(26.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company; to lend money to the shareholders of the Company or any one or more of them with or without security:

(27.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(28.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(29.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(30.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(31.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(32.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(33.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(34.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(35.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(36.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(37.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(38.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclauses of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.
